Some may be patentable or otherwise. Irrespective of what the company decides to do with that, all work artifacts and intellectual property (IP) belong to the company.

10) Min-Zharge might be issuing various digital and physical assets during your internship and the same should be retuned in acceptable conditions (reasonable) at the time of leaving. Again we hope that this situation does not arise.

11) After completing your internship, you should not request other interns, employee, customers, prospects, business associates to leave Min-Zharge.

12) You will not create a business in competition with Min-Zharge during your tenure.

13) You are not obligated to share any confidential information of your former employer.
